C.T.ART-COLORTONE. REG. U.S. PAT. OFF. MADE BY CURT TEICH & CO., CHICAGO

"Ah, there skipper!" The personable young things amid the shrubbery are waving to an aviator friend passing low over the World's Fair in New York. The waterfall back of them, one of the architectural novelties of the exposition, pours down the side of the Electric Utilities Building. Visitors leaving the structure are delighted to find themselves passing through a miniature Niagara without becoming damp.
